

STUDY FEES REGULATIONS

GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. The University of Economy in Bydgoszcz, hereinafter referred to as the “University”, is a non-public institution of higher education, entered into the register under number 309.
2. Pursuant to §51 of the Statute of the University, the Students have to pay for studying at the University.

RECRUITMENT FEE

1. The recruitment fee for candidates is PLN 85.
2. The recruitment fee does not apply to foreigners.
3. The recruitment fee is paid to the bank account of the University and verified by the Recruitment Office.
4. The recruitment fee covers the cost of office services provided during the administrative procedure related to the recruitment process and admission to the University. It is collected regardless of the outcome of the recruitment and is non-refundable, unless the University has failed to start the administrative and legal procedure or to open a given course or field of study.

ENROLMENT FEE

1. The enrolment fee is PLN 500.
2. The enrolment fee for candidates applying for admission to the next semester, considering ECTS points, is PLN 500.
3. The enrolment fee for foreigners is EUR 300.
4. The enrolment fee for foreigners applying for admission to the next semester, considering ECTS points, is EUR 250.
5. The enrolment fee is paid to the bank account of the University prior to signing the Study Agreement.
6. The enrolment fee covers costs related to the preparation of study documentation for the admitted Student and other actions required to start studying and exercising student rights. The enrolment fee is non-refundable, unless the University has failed to commence the administrative and legal procedure or to open a given area or field of study.

7. If readmitted, the Student is not required to pay the enrolment fee.
8. The fee for assessing differences in learning outcomes arising from §33 and 34 of the Study Regulations is PLN 1 000 for students studying in Polish and PLN 1 500 for students studying in a foreign language.

TUITION FEE

1. The current amount is given in the Student's Individual Account in the iSAPS IT system.
2. The tuition fee for a year of studying covers all costs related to studying in a given academic year, in particular services specified in §1 of the Study Agreement.
3. The tuition fee does not include the cost of boarding, accommodation and travelling during study tours or field practice specified in the study program.
4. The tuition fee does not include some elective options proposed as part of the Flexible Educational System.
5. If a given area or field of study is not opened after signing the Study Agreement, and the candidate decides to choose a different area or field of study, they will be charged the more favourable tuition fee during their first year of study.
6. The quarterly settlement period is the basic period for payment of the due tuition fee. Four basic quarterly settlement periods are established as follows:
 - a. I quarterly settlement period (September, October, November)
 - b. II quarterly settlement period (December, January, February)
 - c. III quarterly settlement period (March, April, May)
 - d. IV quarterly settlement period (June, July, August)
7. The status of a student is retained for the entire duration of the studies until their completion, i.e. until the defence and obtaining of the diploma, or removal from the list of students due to submitting a written resignation from studies at the University. Completion of studies and obtaining a diploma does not exempt the graduate from the obligation to settle all financial obligations arising from studying at the University.
8. In each subsequent academic year, the tuition fee may be increased by the overall consumer price index for goods and services in the previous calendar year, as announced by the President of Statistics Poland (by no more than 30%).
9. University may waive valorisation or valorise by a lower value.
10. The University publishes information on tuition and fees after valorisation in the iSAPS IT system in the in the Student's Individual Account by the 30th of June.

1. The tuition fee for a year of study can be paid in either a fixed or progressive system, in the following forms:
 - 1) twelve instalments payable by the 10th of each month, from September to August (this option does not apply to the final year of study),
 - 2) ten instalments payable by the 10th of each month, from September to June,
 - 3) four instalments payable by the 10th of September, December, March, and June respectively,
 - 4) two instalments payable by the 25th of August and the 25th of January respectively,
 - 5) a single one-time payment due by the 25th of August (applies to summer enrolment) and the 25th of January respectively (applies to winter enrolment).
2. The number of instalments may be smaller for certain levels of study, particularly for second-cycle studies.
3. The Student declares the number of instalments in the Study Agreement.
4. First-year students are required to pay tuition fees by the deadlines specified in the Study Agreement.
5. The University allows for the possibility of changing the number of instalments declared in the Study Agreement only once per academic year, i.e. by the 31st of October (applies to summer enrolment) or by the 31st of March (applies to winter enrolment), upon the Student's written request. In particularly justified cases, upon a written and reasoned request, the Student may obtain approval to change the payment schedule at other times.
6. The University allows for the possibility of changing the payment system declared in the Study Agreement, provided that the difference in the amount resulting from the change is covered.

1. The tuition fee is payable to the bank account of the University. An individual account number is assigned to every student in ISAPS.
2. The day of payment of a given fee is considered to be the day of receipt of funds into the WSG bank account.

1. In case the Study Agreement is signed after the beginning of the academic year, the Student is obliged to pay the whole amount due for a given academic year.

2. If the Study Agreement is signed after the payment deadline in a given month, the Student is required to pay the outstanding tuition instalments for the semester by the 10th day of the month immediately following the month in which the Study Agreement was signed.
3. In the case of continuous recruitment, an individual payment schedule (system and form) is established.

1. The tuition fee for foreigners is stated in euros (EUR) but paid in Polish zlotys (PLN).
2. The tuition fee instalments given in euros (EUR) are converted into Polish zlotys (PLN) according to the fixed exchange rate established on the day of the start of the recruitment, respectively for summer and winter enrolment.
3. Foreigners who have been granted the "Pole's Card" ("Karta Polaka") during their studies will transition from the tuition fee for foreigners to the tuition fee applicable to students holding Polish citizenship starting from the next semester.

1. The University provides for discounts in tuition fees for candidates applying for admission to the first year of studies.
2. The University provides for discounts in the form of scholarships and grants.
3. The University does not provide for the possibility of combining discounts resulting from several scholarship programmes. The Student is always granted the more favourable discount.
4. Any reductions in the tuition fee during the academic year are introduced by an annex to the Study Agreement.

§ 10

1. In the event of terminating the Study Agreement or being removed from the list of students, the Student is required to pay the due tuition fees by the end of the current quarterly settlement period in which the termination of the Study Agreement or removal from the list of students occurs. In the case of termination of the Study Agreement and non-commencement of studies by the 30th of September (prior to the start of the winter semester - applicable to summer enrolment) or by the 28th of February (prior to the start of the summer semester - applicable to winter enrolment), the Student may be exempt from paying the tuition fee.
2. It is permitted to terminate the contract only by written notice under penalty of invalidity with a two-week notice effective at the end of the quarterly billing period, in accordance with the Student Fee Regulations.

3. If removed from the list of students, the Student is obliged to pay the tuition fee by the end of the month in which they were removed from the list of students.
4. In the event of being removed from the student list due to failing the academic year, the tuition fee is charged for the failed year along with the fee for an extended mode of individualized credits.
5. The Student with a conditional pass, removed from the list of students for failing the academic year, is required to pay the tuition fee by the declared deadline for obtaining the conditional credits.
6. If the Student does not resume studies after the dean's leave of absence, fees are charged until the end of the dean's leave period.

1. Overpayments are refunded upon the Student's written request in the semester system, respectively at the end of the semester, i.e. by the 31st of March and the 31st of October.

OUTSTANDING TUITION FEES

§ 12

1. The Student is obliged to make timely payments for tuition fees and other additional fees specified in the Study Fees Regulations. The payment status can be monitored by the Student instantly using the electronic ISAPS application.

1. In the case of outstanding fees, the University is entitled to contractual interest for late payment.
2. Due to handling costs, interest of less than PLN 15 will not be charged provided that all financial obligations to the University are settled in full.

1. In case of the Student's account being in arrears, the University sends payment reminders electronically via ISAPS, indicating the amount owed and the set payment deadline.
2. If the debt remains unsettled, the University sends information, reminders, and warnings. A fee of PLN 15 is charged for written reminders and warnings.
3. The aforementioned actions are conciliatory in nature and aim to recover the outstanding study fees before the Student is removed from the list of students due to non-payment, which constitutes termination of the Study Agreement.

4. After removal from the list of students, the University sends pre-collection reminders in order to recover the debts. If there is no response from the debtor, the matter is forwarded to a debt collection company.
5. The Student's debt may be subject to resale to external entities engaged in such activities.

FEES RELATED TO THE SUPPLEMENTARY EDUCATIONAL OFFER

1. The fee for the complementary module and e-module (on the ONTE platform) is PLN 500. Module fees are to be paid to the University's account by the 10th of December for the winter semester and by the 10th of April for the summer semester.
2. The fee for differences in learning outcomes arising from §32 of the Study Regulations is PLN 1 000 for students studying in Polish and PLN 1 800 for students studying in a foreign language.
3. The tuition fee for pursuing a second area of study is 20% of the tuition fee for the area specified by the University during concurrent studies. After completing the basic area of study, the fee is 80% of the tuition fee. The aforementioned discount is revoked if the Student resigns from one area of study.
4. The tuition fee for participating in the Dual Degree Programme is determined separately in the annexes to the agreements.
5. The tuition fee for pursuing a second field of study is 70% of the base price during the period of concurrently studying two fields of study and 80% of the base price after completing the primary field of study. The aforementioned discount is cancelled in case of resignation from one field of study.
6. In the case of combining second-cycle degree studies with the offer of Postgraduate Studies:
 - 1) Formula 2 in 1 – a one-time fee of PLN 500 is required from the 2nd semester,
 - 2) Formula 1+1 – a 50% discount is applied to Postgraduate Studies
